Globe is one of the best advertised cities in the southwest. It's no fake advertising either.

It is doubtful if the inhabitants of Mars can already distinguish the outlines of the Panama canal.

The city of Phoenix will decide by a special election Tuesday whether or not the tiger shall be abolished.

All of the disagreeable things on the list of Panama were undoubtedly carefully hidden from the view of the president last week.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat cannot get over the two facts that Arizona rejected joint statehood and that the new state of Oklahoma went democratic.

The board of supervisors will start their canvassing task tomorrow. All doubts will soon be removed as to the result of the recent election in Gila county.

Bryan says he is sorry Hearst was defeated. But how can he be after the New York Sun's ante-election prediction that the next governor of New York would be the next president of the United States?

The chairman of the anti-joint statehood campaign committee gives the Arizona press credit for the overwhelming vote against jointure. This must be pleasing news to several of the jointist editors.
